

Tells Why She Uses Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies.

THE NAME of Mrs. J. E. Harwell, nee Julia Emma Fleming, is a familiar one in the state of Georgia. She writes: "It is with pleasure that I express my gratitude for the wonderful benefits I have received from Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies, especially the Nerve and Liver Pills, New Heart Cure and Anti-Pain Pills. Actual experience has taught me their great worth. No family should be without them. They have fully restored me from a complication of disorders chiefly affecting the heart, nervous system and kidneys. When I travel I always take one of your Anti-Pain Pills before entering the cars and thus prevent swimming of the head and nausea, to which I have been subject for several years."

Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on Heart and Nerves sent free to all applicants.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from lagrippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for lagrippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventative of that dread disease. It will effect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by C. W. Milhous, druggist.

TO MABEL.

Though, Mabel, scarce an hour is past Since first you opened that romance, Already now to "Part the Last" You turn a surreptitious glance. Why, surely soon enough you'll learn The fate of each fictitious friend. You're scarcely done with chapter one Before you want "to know the end."

The heroine's stupendous feats, The hero's indignation fine, At which the wicked duke retreats, Quite routed all along the line. The noble deeds, the stirring scenes, To none of these will you attend Till certain quite that all come right, That marriage bells are at the end.

Well, if the bard might moralize, He would remark, I think that man, Throughout existence, ever tries To imitate your simple plan. In guessing what is still to come Long days with scant result we spend. We, too, would look throughout the book; We, too, would like to know the end.

And yet I venture to maintain To read your stories through were best, A course whereby their plots would gain No inconsiderable zest. So, Mabel, in the tale of life, Whatever lot the fates may send, Fulfill each day as best you may, Nor strive too soon to know the end. —Anthony C. Deane in Temple Bar.

REMOVING A CAPITAL.

The Emperor Constantine's Momentous Change From Rome to Constantinople.

The removal of the imperial capital from Rome to Byzantium was one of the most decisive acts on record—a signal monument of foresight, genius and will. Madrid, St. Petersburg and Berlin are also capital cities created by the act of a powerful ruler. But none of these foundations can compare in scale and in importance with the tremendous task of moving the seat of empire 1,000 miles to the east, from the center of Italy to the coast of Asia, from a Latin to a Greek city, from a pagan to a Christian population. The motives which impelled Constantine to this momentous step were doubtless complex. Since the time of Trajan Rome had not been the constant residence of the emperors, except of Antoninus Pius, nor the regular seat of government. Since the time of Diocletian Rome had been abandoned as the official center of the empire. Many places east of it had been tried, and Constantine, when resolved on the great change, seriously contemplated two, if not three, other sites. It had long been agreed that the imperial seat must be transferred toward the east, and there was an instinctive sense that the valley of the Tiber was no longer safe from the incessant onward march of the Teutonic nations in arms.

The tendency was to get somewhere south of the Danube and within reach of Asia Minor and the Euphrates. The greater chiefs had all felt that the empire must be recast, both politically and spiritually. By the fourth century it was clear that the empire must break with the rooted prejudices that surrounded the senate of Rome and the gods of the capitol. And Constantine, the half conscious and half convinced agent of the great change—the change from the ancient world to the modern world, from polytheism to Christianity—saw in the church and bishop of Rome a power which would never be his creature. Dante tells us that "Caesar became a Greek in order to give place to the Roman pastor." There is much in this, but it is not the whole truth, for Caesar might have become a Spaniard, or a Gaul, or an Italian. Dante might have added that Caesar became an oriental in order to give place to the Goth. Constantinople from the first was a Christian city, with an orthodox church, but it was a church that was from the first a department of the state.—Fortnightly Review.

Diamond Cutting.

Not only is diamond cutting not a specially high paid occupation, but it is one involving a most humiliating system of espionage to the worker. Each man is held strictly to account for the stones he receives on going to work in the morning, and the count has to be carefully taken when the unfinished work is turned in at night to be locked up in a safe against the return of the workmen the next day. The possibilities of theft are great, though a dishonest workman knows that an attempt to dispose of an unfinished stone would bring suspicion upon him wherever the attempt was made.—New York Mercury.

THE TIMES-STAR, Cincinnati, O.

John R. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there is no newspaper in the United States that the Cincinnati Enquirer is more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John R. McLean. The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

Here is a diamond, here a piece of charcoal. Both Carbon; yet between them stands the mightiest of magicians—Nature. The food on your table, and your own body; elementally the same, yet between the two stands digestion, the arbiter of growth or decline, life or death.

We cannot make a diamond; we cannot make flesh, blood and bone. No. But by means of the Shaker Digestive Cordial we can enable the stomach to digest food which would otherwise ferment and poison the system. In all forms of dyspepsia and incipient consumption, with weakness, loss of flesh, thin blood, nervous prostration the Cordial is the successful remedy. Taken with food it relieves at once. It nourishes, and assists nature to nourish. A trial bottle—enough to show its merits—10 cents.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition or hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

Mrs. Stowe's Story Home.

"At the patriarchal age of 85," writes Richard Burton in "The Ladies' Home Journal of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, "this woman, this great writer and famed American, is quietly spending the evening of her life in Hartford, Conn., the most popular section for residences of the better sort, is situated Forest street, short and beautifully tree lined, running off south at right angles from the stately Farmington avenue. A few steps down the third house on the right is a pretty brick cottage of moderate size, painted gray, and attractive by reason of its well kept lawn, its flower beds and trees. Here Mrs. Stowe has lived with her two daughters for more than 20 years, moving thither in 1878 from a larger house near by, which she built and occupied until driven from it by the inroads of business. Forest street is true to its name, for as one passes along it great trees and ample grounds, with no fences and a general effect of unspoiled nature, come into view. The contiguous estates of Charles Dudley Warner and his brother George embrace several acres of land. The picturesque houses stand far back from the sidewalk. Squirrels play boldly up and down the chestnut boles, and the woodpecker and robin rejoice in the green herbage. The former's land touches that of Mark Twain (Samuel L. Clemens), whose large, many gabled house faces on Farmington avenue, just around the corner."

A Wrong Supposition.

"The people moved out of that house this morning, and that is the landlord just going in."

"He appears to have a great many prospective tenants."

"Prospective tenants, indeed! They are only neighbors going to see in what condition the people left the house."

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain passing it or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention the Seymour Republican, and send your full post-office address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. ROOSEVELT IS NAMED

New Yorker Appointed Assistant Secretary of the Navy.

SOME INDIANIAN DISAPPOINTED

Editor Elliott May Yet Get a Good Place. Belligerent Rights Resolutions in the Senate—May Send a Special Ambassador to Turkey—Senate Anticipated the President Regarding Flood Sufferers.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Among the appointments sent by the president to the senate yesterday was one which proved a disappointment to William E. Elliott, editor of the Newcastle (Ind.) Courier, and his friends, who had hoped that he might be named as assistant secretary of the navy. The choice, however, fell to Theodore Roosevelt of New York. Congressman Johnson has already seen the president with respect to Mr. Elliott's chances for some other good place and he may yet be honored by the administration. The only other important appointment made was that of Captain A. S. Crowninshield as chief of the bureau of navigation in the navy department.

BELLIGERENT RIGHTS.

Mr. Morgan's Cuban Resolution Debated in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Much bad blood was developed in the senate yesterday over the Cuban question and there were numerous stormy passages and acrimonious personal charges. Early in the day Mr. Morgan of Alabama called up his resolution declaring that a state of war exists in Cuba and recognizing both parties as belligerents. He spoke for some time in a dispassionate manner on the resolution but was aroused by Mr. Hale of Maine to a series of sharp retorts. It led to the declaration by Mr. Morgan that instead of sending a lawyer to Cuba to investigate the case of Dr. Ruiz, as was contemplated, the administration would do well to send a ship of war to Havana and demand redress. At another point Mr. Hale questioned Mr. Morgan's statement that Cuban prisoners were "stuffed" with American prisoners, declaring that the information reaching him (Hale) showed that no such condition existed. Mr. Morgan asked who this information came from and then hotly asserted that he knew where it came from and the world knew where it came from, as the senator from Maine had not denied the fact that he was in communication with the Spanish authorities. Mr. Hale indignantly denied that his information came from Spanish sources, and said it was furnished in every item by American citizens. The strain occasioned by this charge and denial was relieved by the expiration of the morning hour, which cut off the debate. The Morgan resolution lost its place and went to the calendar, but Mr. Morgan will continue his speech to-day, and has given notice of a motion to proceed with the Cuban resolution to a final vote. Most of the day was given to the bankruptcy bill. Mr. Stewart of Nevada speaking in opposition. The discussion drifted to the financial question. Mr. Chandler and Mr. Stewart having an amusing discussion on bimetalism. During the day Mr. Earle (Dem., S. C.) introduced a resolution for the immediate reorganization of senate committees and the filling of all vacancies. He spoke briefly for the first time since entering the senate, on the injustice of keeping the new senators from committee service. The resolution went over.

SPECIAL AMBASSADOR.

McKinley May Send One to Turkey Regarding Outrages to Missionaries.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The adoption of a vigorous policy to secure from the Turkish government a settlement of the claims preferred by the United States on account of the destruction of American missionary property and outrages to American missionaries committed in the fall of 1895 is being considered by the new administration, and probably will be put into operation soon. President McKinley's programme contemplates the sending to Constantinople of Hon. John W. Foster, former secretary of state, as a special envoy with the rank of ambassador to secure from the sultan the payment of the claims which have been filed and the speedy trial of those American citizens against whom charges have been made by Turkish officials. It is said the president will ask congress to give him authority to commission a special ambassador to Turkey.

INDIANA POSTMASTERS.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The following Indiana postmasters were appointed yesterday: D. H. Meredith, Algiers, Pike county; J. M. Groninger, Deer Creek, Carroll county; W. F. Snyder, Burney, White county; F. W. Hall, Owensville, Gibson county; W. E. Fitzpatrick, Whiteland, Johnson county.

FLOOD SUFFERERS.

President May Not Send a Message to Congress Owing to Senate Action.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—It is probable that the president will abandon the idea of sending a message to congress relative to the Mississippi flood sufferers. It is thought to be unnecessary owing to the passage by the senate of the Bate resolution diverting the relief of the flood sufferers the unexpended balance of the appropriation made from time to time to meet contingencies in connection with cholera and other epidemics. Mr. McKinley was in consultation with General Alger yesterday in reference to the senate's action. It was decided if a message was not sent to congress all data in the hands of the president would be furnished the surgeon general and congress.

MISSISSIPPI FLOOD.

Supreme Question Now Is the Duration of Present Conditions.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 7.—The feature of the flood condition in the Mississippi delta is the gradual spread of water over an area that hitherto was never overflowed. The upper crevasse in the Tunica county levy is a thousand feet wide, and so great is the outpour that water from below the break is being drawn up to and hurled out over the fertile valley through the crevasse. All of the country east of the main line of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road is flooded, and in many places the water has gone over the tracks, falling into the Yazoo river. The fall in the main channel at Helena, Greenville, Vicksburg and Arkansas City is due to the filling up of the delta and the lower White river country. The supreme question is the duration of the flood. If the lower levees along Louisiana and southeastern Arkansas should hold, which it is believed they will not do, the emptying of the delta and St. Francis basin will be slow. If they break and the river continues to fall at Cairo, the upper St. Francis basin and the delta will be clear of water by May 5. If this should prove true there will be no difficulty in growing cotton. But breaks in Louisiana and southeast Arkansas will hold water in that territory until the middle of May, far after the usual time for planting cotton in that territory. The river at Memphis is stationary.

TELEGRAPHS FOR AN APPROPRIATION.

JACKSON, Miss., April 7.—The governor last night telegraphed Secretary Alger asking for an appropriation of $100,000 from congress, which, he said, would close the crevasse in this state, give employment to all the needy and allow people to work land in 30 days.

SLIGHT RISE AT GREENVILLE.

GREENVILLE, Miss., April 7.—The water shows decline in the river, while the back water shows a slight rise.

HUNTER'S CHANCES.

Democrats Gain a Vote in the Late Senator Salyer's District.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 7.—The news from the thirty-fourth senatorial district last night that Hager, the democrat, had certainly won in the special election to choose a successor to the late Senator Salyer has dashed one hope of Hunter and his supporters. They hoped that Atchison, the republican, would win and put Hunter within two instead of three votes of an election. He believed that he had one more democratic vote ready to come to him and that Stager, the republican, would come back to him whenever his vote would elect him. But Hager's election and early arrival here may result in O'Grady, the sick democrat, being brought here, when 70 votes would again become necessary to a choice and Dr. Hunter would be four instead of three votes short of election.

Michigan's State Election.
LANSING, Mich., April 7.—Returns from the state show the election of Charles D. Long (Rep.) for justice of the supreme court by a plurality of about 40,000. Republican candidates for regents of the university are elected by smaller pluralities. McKinley's majority in the state was 58,000 and Pinckney for governor was 30,000 greater. Of 60 cities in which mayors were elected the fusionists carried 28 and the Republicans 32. In five cities party lines were not drawn.

Applications for Appointments.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—Applications for appointment to presidential offices under the treasury department have been filed as follows: J. W. Elan of Valparaiso, Ind., as deputy auditor for the navy department; J. O'Brien, as supervising inspector of steam vessels at Cincinnati; J. H. Puryear, as surveyor of customs at Paducah, Ky.; O. H. Barnes, as surveyor of customs at Louisville, W. O. Brane, as appraiser of merchandise at Cleveland.

Demand for Reparation.
TANGIER, Morocco, April 7.—Acting upon instructions received from Washington, United States Consul Burke has sent an energetic demand to the Sherifian court for ample reparation for the death of a Moorish soldier to shoot Vice Consul Castellan at Larache. It is believed that the United States will demand a heavy indemnity as the result of this demand.

BATTLE OF BALLOTS

Returns From Town Elections Held in Several States Yesterday.

HARRISON WINS AT CHICAGO.

Republicans of St. Louis Elect Their Candidate For Mayor—Arkansas Towns Democratic as Usual—Mayor McMurtry Re-Elected at Denver—Women Voted in the Sautower State.

CHICAGO, April 7.—The mayoralty election yesterday resulted in a decisive victory for the Democratic party, its candidate Carter Harrison, having more votes than all the other candidates combined. Available figures gave Sears (Rep.) 60,000; Harrison (Dem.) 148,000; Harlan (Ind.) 72,000; Hesing (Ind.) 18,000.

The feature of the election was the strength shown by Harlan. He ran second to Harrison, and although an independent with no organization behind him, he secured more votes than the regular republican candidate, Judge Nathaniel Sears, who was looked upon as being the nominee of the republican machine, which is unpopular. Harlan secured a heavy vote from men who would have voted for the regular republican nominee, but who desired to express their opinion of the machine. He drew some votes from the democrats, but not many.

Result in Various Wisconsin Towns.

MILWAUKEE, April 7.—Party lines were not closely drawn in the municipal elections throughout Wisconsin yesterday. At Eau Claire the Democrats elected W. H. Frawley mayor and a majority of the other city officials by pluralities averaging 200. At Waukesha the Democrats elected H. M. Enos mayor, the Republicans taking most of the other offices. At Lacrosse the entire republican ticket was elected by large pluralities. At Chippewa Falls Democrats and Republicans divided honors, the former getting the city council and the latter the mayor. At Green Bay F. B. Desnoy was elected mayor on an independent ticket. Racine re-elected Mayor Fred Graham (Dem.), the Republicans getting a majority of the aldermen. In Milwaukee the election was for judges of the superior and county courts and for associate justice of the supreme court. J. A. Mann (Dem.) is re-elected county judge, and George R. Sutherland (Rep.) is elected superior judge.

At St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, April 7.—Republicans carried the city yesterday, their mayoralty candidate, Henry Ziegenhein, being elected by a plurality which will probably be 14,000. With the exception of four members of the house of delegates the entire republican ticket went through. Ziegenhein polled about the normal Republican vote. The Democrats were badly split and lost votes to the Republicans. Incomplete returns from the state show Democratic victories. The silver question has entered largely into the contest.

Arkansas Town Elections.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 7.—Municipal elections were held in all Arkansas towns yesterday. Very little interest was aroused, the contests being made in but few places. There was no opposition to the Democratic ticket, headed by J. A. Woodson for mayor in Little Rock, and a very light vote was polled. The only place in doubt is the mayoralty of Pine Bluff where four tickets were in the field.

At Denver, Col.

DENVER, Col., April 7.—The mayoralty contest yesterday was a warm one. There were thirteen tickets in the field and three candidates confidently expected to be elected. It was a victory for the present incumbent, Thomas McMurray, a Silver Republican, who was running as an independent against a Democrat and a straight Republican. His plurality was 4,000 to 3,000.

At Quincy, Ills., April 7.—The entire Democratic ticket was elected yesterday by majorities ranging from 100 to 700.

TO MABEL.

Though, Mabel, scarce an hour is past Since first you opened that romantic, Already now to "Part the Last" You turn a surreptitious glance. Why, surely soon enough you'll learn The fate of each delicious friend. You've scarcely done with chapter one Before you want "to know the end."

The heroine's stupendous feats, The hero's indignation fine, At which the wicked duke retreats, Quite routed all along the line, The noble deeds, the stirring scenes, Till certain quite that all comes right, That marriage bells are at the end.

Well, if the bard might moralize, He would remark, I think, that man, Throughout existence, ever tries To imitate your simple plan. In guessing what is still to come Long days with scant result we spend, We, too, would look throughout the book; We, too, would like to know the end.

And yet I venture to maintain To read your stories through were best, As surely whorly their plots would gain No inconsiderable zest. So, Mabel, in the tale of life, Whatever lot the fates may send, Fulfill each day as best you may, For strive too soon to know the end.

—Anthony C. Deane in Temple Bar.

REMOVING A CAPITAL.

The Emperor Constantine's Momentous Change From Rome to Constantinople.

The removal of the imperial capital from Rome to Byzantium was one of the most decisive acts on record—a signal monument of foresight, genius and will. Madrid, St. Petersburg and Berlin are also capital cities created by the act of a powerful ruler. But none of these foundations can compare in scale and in importance with the tremendous task of moving the seat of empire 1,000 miles to the east, from the center of Italy to the coast of Asia, from a Latin to a Greek city, from a pagan to a Christian population. The motives which impelled Constantine to this momentous step were doubtless complex. Since the time of Trajan Rome had not been the constant residence of the emperors, except of Antoninus Pius, nor the regular seat of government. Since the time of Diocletian Rome had been abandoned as the official center of the empire. Many places east of it had been tried, and Constantine, when resolved on the great change, seriously contemplated two, if not three, other sites. It had long been agreed that the imperial seat must be transferred toward the east, and there was an instinctive sense that the valley of the Tiber was no longer safe from the incessant onward march of the Teutonic nations in arms.

The tendency was to get somewhere south of the Danube and within reach of Asia Minor and the Euphrates. The greater chiefs had all felt that the empire must be recast, both politically and spiritually. By the fourth century it was clear that the empire must break with the rooted prejudices that surrounded the senate of Rome and the gods of the capitol. And Constantine, the half conscious and half convinced agent of the great change—the change from the ancient world to the modern world, from polytheism to Christianity—saw in the church and bishop of Rome a power which would never be his creature. Dante tells us that "Cesar became a Greek in order to give place to the Roman pastor." There is much in this, but it is not the whole truth, for Caesar might have become a Spaniard, or a Gaul, or an Illyrian. Dante might have added that Caesar became an oriental in order to give place to the Goth. Constantine from the first was a Christian city, with an orthodox church, but it was a church that was from the first a department of the state.—Fortnightly Review.

Diamond Cutting.

Not only is diamond cutting not a specially high paid occupation, but it is one involving a most humiliating system of espionage to the worker. Each man is held strictly to account for the stones he receives on going to work in the morning, and the count has to be carefully taken when the unfinished work is turned in at night to be locked up in a safe against the return of the workmen the next day. The possibilities of theft are great, though a dishonest workman knows that an attempt to dispose of an unfinished stone would bring suspicion upon him wherever the attempt was made.—New York Mercury.

John R. McLean's Great Newspaper.

Without a single exception, there was beyond doubt no greater or more popular newspaper in the United States than the Cincinnati Enquirer; for a more successful publisher than its proprietor, Mr. John R. McLean. The old-time prices for the Daily Enquirer have been maintained, and its circulation largely increased each year; hard times and cheaper journals failing to arrest its onward march and high appreciation of the public for its true worth and merit.

The Weekly Enquirer at beginning of the campaign year was offered at 50 cents a year, and its circulation increased by the addition of over 200,000 new subscribers; the most substantial and coveted testimonial a publisher could desire.

When asked for the secret of such success, Mr. McLean frankly answers: The Enquirer has no opinions to force upon its patrons, it simply prints the facts and tells the truth that the reader may form his own opinions. By maintaining the price of the paper, more news and greater variety can be furnished, and every class of business interests catered to, which a cheaper journal cannot afford.

The very liberal support given the Enquirer by the public at large, makes incumbent upon the management to serve it faithfully with zeal and enterprise in minor matters as well as those of greater magnitude.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidneys and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50 cents or $1.00 per bottle at W. F. Peter's, successor to J. H. Andrews & Co., Drug Store.

Here is a diamond, here a piece of charcoal. Both Carbon; yet between them stands the mightiest of magicians—Nature. The food on your table, and your own body; elementally the same; yet between the two stands digestion, the arbiter of growth or decline, life or death.

We cannot make a diamond; we cannot make flesh, blood and bone. No. But by means of the Shaker Digestive Cordial we can enable the stomach to digest food which would otherwise ferment and poison the system. In all forms of dyspepsia and incipient consumption, with weakness, loss of flesh, thin blood, nervous prostration the Cordial is the successful remedy. Taken with food it relieves at once. It nourishes, and assists nature to nourish. A trial bottle—enough to show its merits—10 cents.

Yours truly,

Sorry to Lose Him.

Edward A. Swain who has had an interest and was manager of the Band Saw Works has sold out and has left in search of a new location for erecting another mill of the kind. A scarcity of timber is the cause. Mr. Swain is a clever gentleman and we are sorry to lose him. Mr. Roach who has been connected with the mill will become manager.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition or hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Ed. Bowers and wife and Joe Hemphill, former well known citizens here who moved many years ago to Lincoln, Neb., started to return here and on account of high transportation went into Kansas and settled there. They may return here later on.

ELY'S CREAM BALM is a positive cure. Apply into the nostrils. It is quickly absorbed. 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; samples 10c. by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 59 Warren St., New York City.

"At the patriarchal age of 85," writes Richard Burton in The Ladies' Home Journal of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, "this woman, this great writer and famed American, is quietly spending the evening of her life in Hartford's literary corner. In the pleasant western part of the town, known as Asylum hill, the most popular section for residences of the better sort, is situated Forest street, short and beautifully tree lined, running off south at right angles from the stately Farmington avenue. A few steps down the third house on the right is a pretty brick cottage of moderate size, painted gray, and attractive by reason of its well kept lawn, its flower beds and trees. Here Mrs. Stowe has lived with her two daughters for more than 20 years, moving thither in 1873 from a larger house near by, which she built and occupied until driven from it by the inroads of business. Forest street is true to its name, for as one passes along it great trees and ample grounds, with no fences and a general effect of unspoiled nature, come into view. The contiguous estates of Charles Dudley Warner and his brother George embrace several acres of land. The picturesque houses stand far back from the sidewalk. Squirrels play boldly up and down the chestnut boles, and the woodpecker and robin rejoice in the green herbage. The former's land touches that of Mark Twain (Samuel L. Clemens), whose large, many gabled house faces on Farmington avenue, just around the corner."

A Wrong Supposition.

"The people moved out of that house this morning, and that is the landlord just going in."

"He appears to have a great many prospective tenants."

"Prospective tenants, indeed! They are only neighbors going to see in what condition the people left the house."

London Fun.

Of Course.

"Buffy is always talking about his library. How large is it?"

"Oh, his library is in his head."

"Bound in calf, then, evidently?"

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common water glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in back, kidney, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain passing it or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, mention the Seymour Republican, and send your full post-office address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee its genuineness.
